COL. ROBERTSON.

He Scores His First Victory Against Senator Smith.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—In the circuit court to-day Judge Ayres sustained the demurrer of Attorney General Michener to the complaint of Senator J. Green Smith, in the lieutenant governor injunction proceedings. Mr. Smith will at once carry the case to the supreme court in order to get a decision before the legislature meets. The decision to-day is a victory for Colonel Robertson.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—In the injunction proceedings of Green Smith against the secretary of state, involving the legality of the election of lieutenant governor, the argument before Judge Ayres consumed several days. The attorney general in behalf of Colonel Robertson, lieutenant governor-elect, held that Smith had not been elected president of the senate legally, and even if he had been, his term could not extend to another session. Besides, the court had no authority to restrain the execution of the law, and the assembly is clothed with exclusive power to pass on the question in controversy.

Jason B. Brown, attorney for Green Smith, held that it was clearly within the injunctive power of the court to grant the relief asked for. Only the governor and president may not be enjoined. The constitution does not provide for the election of a lieutenant governor often than once in four years. Judge Turpie also argued the question for the plaintiff, and Attorney General Michener responded. Major Gordon was permitted to file a brief showing political precedents.

A STRIKE.

Indiana Indulges in the Luxury of One This Time.

LAFAYETTE, Dec. 13.—The freight conductors on the entire line of the Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railway went on a strike to-day on demand for an advance in pay from two and one-half to three cents per mile and an allowance for lost time, which the management refused. Freight trains from one end of the road to the other are tied up.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 13.—Because of a boycott of the union brick makers against outside dealers, work on many buildings is stopped. Work on Ferry & Co.'s seed warehouse and many other mammoth blocks stopped this morning. The American federation of trades and labor, after a spirited session at Columbus, adopted a constitution and adjourned.

The report that the engineers of the Pennsylvania railroad are joining the Knights of Labor is authoritatively denied. Six hundred miners struck at Shamokin, Pa., against a reduction of 10 per cent.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The weather indications are as follows:
Kentucky, fair weather, slightly colder.

Ohio, light rains, followed by fair weather, colder.

Indiana, fair weather, colder.

Michigan, fair weather, colder, light rain or snow, followed by fair weather, slightly colder.

Died in His Bride's Arms.

MANISTEE, Mich., Dec. 13.—Charles Brown and Miss Cora Sibley were married Saturday evening. About two hours after the ceremony the bridal couple were dancing together, when the groom fell dead from heart disease.

Ex-Governor Crowwell Dead.

ADRAIN, Mich., Dec. 13.—Ex-Gov. Charles M. Crowwell died this morning after ten days' illness. For several years he was a law partner of Judge I. M. Cooley. In 1876 he was elected governor and in 1878 was re-elected.

International Y. M. C. A.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The twenty-seventh international convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations will be held in San Francisco early in May, 1887.

Steam Fitters Fall.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Woodman & Warner, steam fitters, assigned to Wm. Kerr this morning. Liabilities, $21,000; assets not known.

Booming Governor Gray.

MICHIGAN CITY, Dec. 13.—The Daily Dispatch Saturday came out in an editorial declaring for Gov. I. P. Gray for United States senator. It says that Gray is the recognized leader of the independent democracy since the death of Hendricks, that he is a shrewd and sagacious politician, and that the young democracy of the state are for him to a man.

Car Works Burned.

AURORA, Ill., Dec. 13.—A fire about midnight in the car department of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy shops, destroyed the building in which are the wood machine shops and cabinet shops. The loss is over $60,000.

IRELAND.

The Cabinet Decides to Introduce a Coercion Bill.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The cabinet met and will not come together again until after Christmas. The order of business in the coming session of parliament was revised and the program will probably be as follows: The session will open with the introduction of a coercion bill, including special provisions for the suppression of boycotting. It was decided that local government measures affecting England and Scotland shall have precedence over legislation on the same subject, or Ireland. The result of this will be that no Irish business, except such as relates to coercion and to the bill extending the scope of the Ashbourne land act, will be transacted. The Hartington section will give thorough support to the coercion measure.

FRANCE.

The new ministry is announced as follows: M. Dauphin, minister of finance; M. Berthelot, instruction; M. Surriar, justice; General Boulanger, war; Admiral Aube, marine; M. Granet, posts and telegraph; M. Lockroy, commerce; M. Milland, public works, and M. Deville, agriculture.

RUSSIA.

All of the small towns in the empire bearing German names will be given Russian names January 1.

GERMANY.

The government has issued urgent orders to bring the army as quickly as practicable up to full war strength. The order was made in view of augmenting the army in Egypt and the naval forces in the Mediterranean.

Coercive measures are to be postponed on account of Gladstone's opposition, and then again the government has information that unless such a policy was adopted there would be enforced raids on Canada.

GERMANY.

The arming of the army with repeating rifles is being hastened, five corps having been already equipped. The war minister gives reasons for an immediate increase of the army saying that the distribution of troops by Germany's powerful neighbors is such as to call for a strengthening of frontier garrisons. There is a belief that a hostile coalition against Russia and France is intended.

CONGRESS.

The Public Business Transacted To-day.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—In the senate Mr. Morrill presented the credentials of Senator Edmunds for the full term, commencing March 4, 1887. Placed on file. A bill was introduced by Mr. Bowen, providing a new basis for the circulation of national banks.

The senate resumed consideration of Mr. Morrill's tariff resolution. Mr. Dawes addressed the senate.

HOUSE.

Under the call of a number of bills were introduced; one by Mr. Lawler that the treasury surplus be expended for coast defenses.

Mr. George Edmund is better to-day and his friends anticipate that he will be himself again. His mind is now clear but physically he is weak.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The stock market opened extremely active, but generally weak, the declines ranging from 1 to 1 1/2 per cent. Generally a few gains were for insignificant fractions. Money on call active at 6 per cent.

Wheat, a shade easier and less active; No. 2 red, January, 90 1/2@90 3/4. Corn, a shade easier and moderately active at 47 1/2@48 1/4. Oats, a shade lower at 35 1/2@42.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Wheat, easier, at 77 1/2. Corn, easy, at 36 1/4. Oats, weaker, at 25 1/2. Rye, 54. Barley, 53 1/2@54. Hog receipts, 41,000.

HUGH McCULLOCH.

The Distinguished Fort Wayne Statesman Indorses Secretary Manning.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Hugh McCulloch, hale, hearty, and bright as when years ago he was at the head of the leading department of the government, sat in his M.-Pherson square home to-day and talked freely about the report of Secretary Manning. "I have read it all," said he, "and I approve it. Why shouldn't I? He is sound, strong and brave. He stands precisely where I did when I was in his place. I am glad that he met the tariff question fairly and squarely, and should be gratified if congress would heed his recommendation for a reduction of tariff taxes. This country should no longer plead the 'baby act' as a reason for taxing the people to enhance the profits of protected interests. It is well to remind the agriculturists of the country of the interest they should manifest on the subject. But the agriculturists are without organization, while the manufacturers are banded together ready to oppose reduction and not unwilling to spend money to accomplish their purpose. It is my opinion, repeatedly expressed, that American manufacturers can compete with the world without further support from the government. As a Henry Clay wldg I believed in the American principle that the tariff should be adjusted to American industries. We had few manufacturers then, and those manufacturers did not receive the degree of support since given to similar industries by the tariffs. My impression is that the way to secure a reduction or revision of the tariff is by a commission—not a commission composed, as the last was, of representatives of leading interests, who may be inclined to adjust the duties with a view to maintaining a favorite theory, but men of character, force, independence, and intelligence, who will undertake the work in a broad spirit and with the determination to meet the question fairly. It is doubtful whether, even if a perfect commission could be secured and its work accepted by the house, it would be acceptable to the senate. As for the proposition to retire the greenbacks by redeeming them with silver certificates, that is practically the suggestion made by me when I was Mr. Johnson's secretary. It was approved and would have succeeded if it had not been insisted upon that the treasury should make statements. The statements showed that the greenbacks were being retired and the fear that the currency would be contracted led to the abandonment of the attempt to get rid of the legal tenders. I do not believe that the recommendation of Secretary Manning will be acted upon and the greenbacks retired. The probability is, on the contrary, that there will be more rather than less of them. The people like them and do not take the trouble to inquire about the theory upon which they are based."

Mr. McCulloch speaks highly of the president's message, which he considers an admirable point taken in connection with the report of the secretary of the treasury. The following cities will come under the provisions of the bill which passed the house of representatives, relating to the extension of the free delivery service, providing that, in addition to the revenue or population necessary, they have the other requirements, such as paved sidewalks, numbered streets and houses, lighted streets, and the general characteristics of cities: Elkhart, Logansport, New Albany and Vincennes.

Secretary Manning said last night he had no thought of resigning. His health is improving daily. Attorney General Garland received a telegram this morning announcing the death of his brother, Rufus K. Garland, near Prescott, Ark.

The interment will be at Hesse Cassel. Mr. Ranner leaves a good family and a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Reineke's orchestra, in the spacious hall above, lured the guests to a promenade, after which President Barnard delivered the welcome address, which was followed by a quartet by Messrs. Lang, Detzer, Page and Yarnelle.

Judge Taylor then held the audience for a few moments, when Mr. Morton was introduced. He gracefully acknowledged the tribute to his honored father in naming the club.

After his remarks, singing, dancing and social intercourse monopolized the time till midnight. Altogether it was a most notable affair.

Miss Mattie French has returned from a six weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. John W. White, of Pittsburg, Pa.

Wednesday evening, at the splendid suburban home of Mr. Stephen B. Bond, on Fairfield avenue, was solemnized the marriage of his oldest daughter, Miss Addie, to Mr. Edwin G. Evans, both prominent in society circles.

One hundred invitations had been issued and the house was thronged with happy guests. The event was elegant in all its appointments.

Roses and flowers were everywhere to be seen, and the mantels were banked with arbutus vites, the work of the bridesmaids, as well as their own conjecture, which was an innovation upon the so-called flowers. Promptly at 6 o'clock, the sweet strains of the bridal chorus, evoked from Reineke's orchestra, the contracting pair entered, preceded by the Misses Adelia Bond, her sister, Louise Carnahan, Lida Lowry and Lenella Ash, attendants; and the ushers, Mr. Albert Bond, the bride's brother, and Mr. Will Evans, brother of the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. N. Webb, of Trinity Episcopal church and Rev. D. W. Moffat, of the First Presbyterian church. The bride was lovely in an exceptionally handsome gown of pure white silk, elaborately trimmed in lace and lilies of the valley. Her veil completely enveloped her, reaching from her feet up over her head and down to the end of her train, which lay two yards on the floor.

Miss Adelia Bond wore lavender silk with pearl bead trimmings. Miss Louise Carnahan wore white India silk with apple green sash and trimmings. Miss Lida Lowry was attired in pink silk and maroon velvet. Miss Ash was attired in white silk, all made short suit, according to the present style.

An elegant wedding supper was served, after which the bride and groom, amid a shower of rice, departed for Detroit, Cleveland and Toledo. On their return they will be at home to their friends at the bride's parents.

The groom presented his bride with an elegant bracelet, with diamond setting, and a sealskin cloak. The bride remembered each of her maids with a stab pin.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Miller entertained friends very pleasantly Wednesday evening.

Charles L. Muhler, our mayor, is reveling in Washington society.

Dr. S. C. Metcalf has been entertaining his uncle, Mr. Stewart Craven, of Texas.

The Misses Mamie and Carrie De-

Wald very pleasantly entertained a progressive euchre party Monday evening. Invitations are out for a large party to be given Sunday evening at the Pottlitzer homestead in honor of Mr. P's birthday.

Mr. Joe Bell is home from Indianapolis.

Miss Hattie L. Coldren, of Lima, is the guest of Miss Rose Scariet.

You are earnestly invited to come to the prayer meeting of the young people's society at the Baptist church tonight. A welcome is given to all. Come and enjoy with us an hour of prayer.

Dakota's "Play" Government.

Huron, Dak., Dec. 13.—The advance guard of the delegates to the constitutional convention and the "legislature," both of which bodies meet here this week, are already beginning to arrive, among those on the ground being Judge Edgerton, John A. Omers, Governor Mellette and State Auditor-elect Sheets. Important action looking toward statehood will be taken by both bodies, and the leaders are busily engaged in mapping out plans and policies.

Poison at the Front Door.

No article entering so generally into the food of every family has been found more villainously adulterated than baking powder. For the purpose of underselling those powders of absolute purity and wholesomeness which alone are safe for use in food. Hundreds of dealers are putting up baking powders with cheap and adulterated cream of tartar, which contains lime, earth, etc., adding strength by the free use of alum.

These adulterated powders are shoved upon the public with the greatest persistency. Many are given away—left in samples at private residences with circulars containing bogus analysis and certificates and false representations as to their value, etc. The worst of them are introduced to the house keeper's attention by fraudulent tricks or by bogus samples, the articles when purchased being found to be entirely different from the sample shown.

The fact that the fact that a powder is sampled from door to door is sufficient to condemn it. A first-class article will sell on its merits. No manufacturer whose goods are of value can afford to give them away, or to test them from door to door, and none but the cheapest make and most inferior or unmarketable goods required to be distributed free in order to get the public to use them, and this method is adopted only by parties who have failed to dispose of their wares through ordinary and legitimate channels.

Free samples of articles of food left at the house should be regarded with suspicion. There is no guarantee of their wholesomeness, while there is real danger that they contain a fatally poisonous compound. Many instances of poisoning from the use of such samples are recorded.

The only safe way is to consign all samples immediately to the ash barrel, and to turn a deaf ear to the statements made by their vendors. It is not worth while to trifles with life and health to the extent of testing every doubtful baking powder that comes along. Better to rely upon an old and reliable brand, like the Royal, which has by a quarter of a century's constant use proved its perfect proved its wholesomeness and efficiency or some other brand that is not so worthless and cheap that its proprietors can afford to give it away by the car load or waste it in making innumerable tests. It is in its favor that the Royal Baking Powder is never given away, sold by means of lotteries, nor accompanied by chromos, spoons, crockery or other gifts, except the gifts of absolute purity, wholesomeness, full weight, and superlative leaving power. Its own merits have been its chief advertisement, and they have secured for it the constant patronage of the American people to an extent beyond the combined sale of all other baking powders. The Royal Baking Powder is certified by all the government chemists is absolutely pure and perfect.

The Conreid Opera company presents the above named opera at the Temple, Wednesday evening. It is one of the best organizations on the road, as is evidenced by the subjoined comments:

New York Herald: "Their performance was as rounded and complete as that of the artists who made the first production a success."

New York Times: "No particular fault could be found with the manner in which the opera was presented."

New York World: "A more complete performance in every respect has not been seen in New York and a more charming opera comique has ever been heard than this."

The First Keen Twinge.

As the season advances the pains and aches by which rheumatism makes itself known, are experienced after every exposure. It is not claimed that Hood's Sarsaparilla is a specific for rheumatism—we doubt if there is, or can be, such a remedy. But the thousands benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla, warrant us in urging others who suffer from rheumatism to take it before the first keen twinge.

Suffered 10 Years and Cured.

Pottstown, Pa. I have been a sufferer from neuralgia for ten years; tried all kinds of remedies without relief, and had given up all hope. I tried a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, and it has effected such wonderful relief, I recommend it to all. CHAS. LAW, Jr.

Suffered 5 Years and Cured.

Boonville, Mo. For the last five years I suffered dreadfully from neuralgia and nervous pain in my head. It affected my face and eyes, so that at times I was unable to attend to any work. I procured a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil at once, and after the first application to the affected parts, I felt instant relief. I consider St. Jacobs Oil the best remedy for instantaneous relief of nervous and neuralgic pains, and will hereafter never be without it. H. M. CLARK.

Suffered Several Years and Cured.

Mrs. Mary K. Sheed, 1110 Maryland Ave., Washington, D. C. states, that for several years she had suffered terribly with facial neuralgia and could find no relief. In a recent attack, the pain was so intense that she resorted to a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. Rubbing the parts affected three times only, all pain vanished, and has not returned.

FREE STATE OF CONGO.

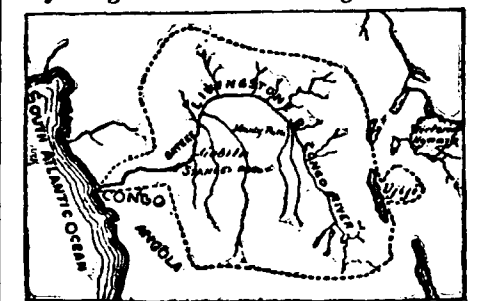

STANLEY'S AFRICAN STATE DOES NOT SEEM TO "GO."

A Territory Nearly Half as Large as the United States—Fabulous Fertility—Almost Unheard of Facilities for Fortune Making—Maps.

The lecture tour of Henry M. Stanley through the United States this winter has called attention anew to his work in Africa. The latest word is that the Free State of Congo, which owes its existence to him, is not panning out according to expectation. This is unfortunate indeed. It was the dream of Stanley to found a great nation, which should take in the whole basin of the Congo. A waterway 6,000 miles in length could with little expense be made navigable throughout. The territory thus included would embrace an area nearly half as large as the United States, a populous region of fabulous fertility. There are already nearly 40,000,000 people there.

France and Portugal had already established trading outposts and laid claim to some of the territory along the Congo. Native tribes one after another owned patches of the banks of the great river. On entering the country of every one of these tribes a new set of tolls had to be paid by the Congo navigators.

Stanley persuaded France and Portugal to cede to the Free State portions of their territory along the banks of the Congo.

MAP OF THE CONGO FREE STATE.

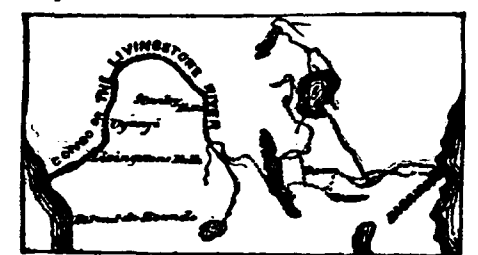

He next persuaded the isolated tribes to merge their interests into one government. The object of this was to do away at once and forever with the annoying river tolls and stoppages. Once belonging to one government throughout its entire length the Congo would be free to travelers and traders from mouth to source. Concessions to this effect were obtained and ratified.

It was under the auspices of King Leopold, of Belgium, that the state was founded. Something more was thought necessary to establish it on a firm foundation. Formal recognition of the new nation was deemed necessary from the governments of Europe and America. An official agreement with France and Portugal must "delimit" their boundaries and give the Free State full sway along the Congo.

African chiefs to the number of 450 had joined the International Association of the Free State of the Congo. There was considerable discussion in the United States congress at first about recognizing the new state. Our American law givers are not over wise about affairs outside of their own country. Gladstone brings it as an accusation against us that we turn our eyes inward to our own country and devote ourselves to getting rich, letting the rest of the world go to the dogs. It is a good way to keep out of trouble at any rate.

At length, April 10, 1884, congress passed a resolution authorizing the president to recognize the International African association on the Congo as one of the governments of the world. The act set the ball rolling. The European powers speedily followed. Nov. 18, 1884, assembled the Berlin conference of nations, to ratify the coming into existence of the Free State. The representatives of fifteen governments, the United States and the countries of Europe, guaranteed place and name to the new nation. Its water ways were to be free routes of trade to all peoples. Best of all, in all time to come there should be no traffic in slaves within its borders, and each power bound itself to prevent such traffic to the utmost of its ability.

The new state was christened. The final sitting of the conference was on Feb. 28, 1885. The part the United States took in this important negotiation is a matter of pride to every American.

ACROSS THE DARK CONTINENT.

The second map shows better than any description what Stanley really did for civilization. The dark lines show his routes of travel. The death of Livingstone had left the work of that great explorer uncompleted. No traveler in Africa had finished entirely the task he had set out to perform. To finish the incomplete discoveries of Burton, Speke, Grant and Dr. Livingstone, Stanley, commissioned by The New York Herald and The London Telegraph, set out in 1877. He entered Africa on the east side at Zanzibar. Two years, eight months and twenty days afterwards he came out on the west side, at the mouth of the Congo or Livingstone river. He had traveled around the great lakes of Africa, established the sources of the Nile, threaded the Congo from its source to its mouth, and crossed the "dark continent" from east to west, being the first white man, probably the first white or black, to achieve any of these exploits.

It will be a matter of profoundest regret if the Free State does not get on well. A brave band of seven more missionaries have just started thither to join Bishop Taylor's band. They are persons in the trades and professions, comprising two carpenters, a physician, a miner and a farmer. The country teems with undeveloped riches, and fabulous fortunes have already been made there.

Fred. Douglass in England.

Frederick Douglass, who has been traveling on the continent, wrote a letter to a citizen of Jefferson, Tex., in which he says: "I am again on the soil of dear old England. The contrast between my present visit and that of 1845 is striking. Then I came as a slave, now I come as a freeman; then as an alien, now as a citizen; then I was young, now I am comparatively old; then to plead the cause of my brethren in bonds, now to tell of their freedom and progress."—Exchange.

Jules Simon thinks the weak point of the French republic is its universal suffrage.

All those suffering from hoarseness, colds or coughs should try Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup, 25c.

Mr. Charles Balch, watchmaker and jeweler, Baltimore and Mount streets, Baltimore, Md., indorses Salvation Oil for "rheumatic troubles."

The recent rains have filled the cisterns.

FAIR BELVA.

A Chat With the Lady Who Has a Presidential Bee in Her Bonnet.

Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood came down from Kendallville [Saturday], having lectured there. She was en route to Lafayette, where she has an engagement to-morrow evening.

THE SENTINEL man introduced himself to the lady who is credited with permitting the presidential bee to flutter in her bonnet.

"I am not a candidate for renomination in 1888. It has been suggested that I run with St. John, but I should have to be at the head of the ticket. I have nominated Matilda Joselyn Gage, of Syracuse, to be a United States senator from New York, and I think she ought to suit the District of Columbia.

"If you can fix it for me I'll run. I have a very strong admiration for President Cleveland on account of his democratic way of being accessible to everybody. He sees everybody, except while writing his messages to congress.

"I have also a very good opinion of Mrs. Cleveland. She has held her position admirably. I allude to her in every lecture as a typical American woman. She is not a great beauty, but still very good looking, what I should call a handsome woman, graceful in form, with natural dignity and tact. The southern people are greatly pleased with both the president and his wife. It is quite the thing now for excursion parties to come to Washington from Richmond, Norfolk, Alexandria and other cities, and they all go to the White house.

Harper's Young People,

An Illustrated Weekly.

Harper's Young People has been called "the model of what a periodical for young people ought to be," and the justice of the commendation is amply sustained by the large circulation it has attained both at home and in Great Britain. The success has been reached by methods that must commend themselves to the judgment of parents, no less than to the tastes of children—namely, by an earnest and well sustained effort to provide the best and most attractive reading for young people at a low price. The illustrations are copious and of a conspicuously high standard of excellence.

An epitome of everything that is attractive and desirable in juvenile literature.—Boston Courier.

DYSPEPSIA

Causes its victims to be miserable, hopeless, confused, and depressed in mind, very irritable, languid, and drowsy. It is a disease which does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy to throw off the causes and tone up the digestive organs till they perform their duties willingly. Hood's Sarsaparilla has proven just the required remedy in hundreds of cases.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for dyspepsia, from which I have suffered two years. I tried many other medicines, but none proved so satisfactory as Hood's Sarsaparilla." THOMAS COOK, Brush Electric Light Co., New York City.

Sick Headache

"For the past two years I have been afflicted with severe headaches and dyspepsia. I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and have found great relief. I cheerfully recommend it to all." Mrs. E. F. ANNABLE, New Haven, Conn.

Mrs. Mary C. Smith, Cambridgeport, Mass., was a sufferer from dyspepsia and sick headache. She took Hood's Sarsaparilla and found it the best remedy she ever used.

COL. ROBERTSON.

He Scores His First Victory Against Senator Smith.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—In the circuit court to-day Judge Ayres sustained the demurrer of Attorney General Mich-
ener to the complaint of Senator J.
Green Smith, in the lieutenant governor injunction proceedings. Mr. Smith will at once carry the case to the supreme court in order to get a decision before the legislature meets. The decision today is a victory for Colonel Robertson.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—In the injunction proceedings of Green Smith against the secretary of state, involving the legality of the election of lieutenant governor, the argument before Judge Ayres consumed several days. The attorney general in behalf of Colonel Robertson, lieutenant governor-elect, held that Smith had not been elected president of the senate legally, and even if he had been, his term could not extend to another session. Besides, the court had no authority to restrain the execution of the law, and the assembly is clothed with exclusive power to pass on the question in controversy.

Jason B. Brown, attorney for Green Smith, held that it was clearly within the injunctive power of the court to grant the relief asked for. Only the governor and president may not be enjoined. The constitution does not provide for the election of a lieutenant governor officer than once in four years.
Judge Turpin also argued the question
for the plaintiff, and Attorney General Michener responded. Major Gordon was permitted to file a brief showing political precedents.

A STRIKE.

Indiana Indulges in the Luxury of One
This Time.

LAFAYETTE, Dec. 13.—The freight conductors on the entire line of the Lon-gville, New Albany and Chicago railway went on a strike to-day on demand for an advance in pay from two and one-half to three cents per mile and small-ware for lost time, which the management refused. Freight trains from one end of the road to the other are tied up.

DETROIT, Mich., Dec. 13.—Because of a boycott of the union brick makers against outside dealers, work on many buildings is stopped. Work on Perry & Co.'s new warehouse and many other newest blocks stopped this morning.

The American federation of trades and labor, after a spirited session at Columbus, adopted a constitution and ad-journal.

The report that the engineers of the Pennsylvania railroad are joining the Knights of Labor is authoritatively denied.

Six hundred miners struck at Shamokin, Pa., against a reduction of 10 per cent.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The weather
indications are as follows:
Kentucky, fair weather, slightly colder.

Ohio, light rains, followed by fair weather, colder.

Indiana, fair weather, colder.

Michigan, fair weather, colder, light rain or snow, followed by fair weather, slightly colder.

Died in His Bride's Arms.

MANITOWISH, Mich., Dec. 13.—Charles Brown and Miss Cora Sibley were married Saturday evening. About two hours after the ceremony the bride couple were dancing together, when the groom fell dead from heart disease.

Ex-Governor Crowell Dead.

ADRIAN, Mich., Dec. 13.—Ex-Gov.
Oswald M. Crowell died this morning after ten days' illness. For several years he was a law partner of Judge J.
M. Cooley. In 1876 he was elected governor and in 1878 was re-elected.

International Y. M. C. A.

New York, Dec. 13.—The twenty-seventh international convention of the Young Men's Christian Associations will be held in San Francisco early in May, 1887.

Steam Fitters Full.

ONTARIO, Dec. 13.—Woodman &
Werner, steam fitters, assigned to Wm.
Kear this morning. Liabilities, $27,- 000; assets not known.

Honoring Governor Gray.

MIAMI CITY, Dec. 13.—The Daily Dispatch Saturday came out in an editorial declaring for Gov. J. P. Gray for United States senator. It says that Gray is the recognized leader of the independent democracy since the death of Hendricks, that he is a shrewd and antagonistic politician, and that the young democracy of the state are for him to a man.

Car Works Burned.

AURORA, Ill., Dec. 13.—A fire about midnight in the car department of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy shops, destroyed the building in which are the wood machine shops and cabinet shops.
The loss is over $50,000.

IRELAND.

The Cabinet Decides to Introduce a Coercion Bill.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The cabinet met and will not come together again until after Christmas. The order of business in the coming session of parliament was revised and the program will probably be as follows: The session will open with the introduction of a coercion bill, including special provisions for the suppression of boycotting. It was decided that local government measures affecting England and Scotland shall have precedence over legislation on the same subject in Ireland. The result of this will be that no Irish business, except such as relates to coercion and to the bill extending the scope of the Ashbourne land act, will be transacted. The Harrington session will give thorough support to the coercion measures.

FRANCE.

The new ministry is announced as follows: M. Dauphin, minister of finance;
M. Berthelot, instruction; M. Burrier, justice; General Boulanger, war; Admiral Aube, marine; M. Grand, posts and telegraph; M. Lockroy, commerce;
M. Milland, public works, and M. Deville, agriculture.

RUSSIA.

All of the small towns in the empire bearing German names will be given Russian names January 1.

GERMANY.

The government has issued urgent orders to bring the army as quickly as possible up to full war strength. The order was made in view of augmenting
the army in Egypt and the naval forces in the Mediterranean.

Coercive measures are to be postponed
on account of Gladstone's opposition, and then again the government has information that unless such a policy was adopted there would be enforced raids on Canada.

GERMANY.

The arming of the army with repeating rifles is being hastened, five corps having been already equipped. The war minister gives reasons for an immediate increase of the army saying that the distribution of troops by Germany's powerful neighbors is such as to call for a strengthening of frontier garrisons.
There is a belief that a hostile coalition against Russia and France is intended.

CONGRESS.

The Public Business Transacted Today.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—In the senate
Mr. Morrill presented the credentials of Senator Edmunds for the full term, commencing March 4, 1887. Passed on file.
A bill was introduced by Mr. Bowen, providing a new basis for the circulation of national banks.

The senate resumed consideration of Mr. Morrill's tariff resolution. Mr.
Dawes addressed the senate.

HOUSE.

Under the call of statutes a number of bills were introduced; one by Mr. Lawler that the treasury surplus be expended for coast defenses.

Mr. George Edmund is better to-day and his friends anticipate that he will be himself again. His mind is now clear but physically he is weak.

THE MARKETS.

New York, Dec. 13.—The stock market opened extremely active, but generally weak, the declines ranging from 1 to 4 per cent. Generally a few gains were for insignificant fractions. Money on call active at 6 per cent.

Wheat, a shade easier and less active;
No. 2 red, January, 90 3/4 @ 91 1/4. Corn, a shade easier and moderately active at 47 3/4 @ 48 1/4. Oats, a shade lower at 35 1/2 @ 36.

CHICAGO MARKET.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Wheat, easier, at 77 1/2. Corn, easy, at 36 1/2. Oats, weaker, at 25 1/2. Rye, 64. Barley, 53 1/2 @ 54.
Hog receipts, 41,000.

HUGH McCULLOCH.

The Distinguished Fort Wayne Statesman Indorses Secretary
Manning.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Ex-Secretary of the Treasury Hugh McCulloch, hale, heartily, and bright as when years ago he was at the head of the leading department of the government, sat in his Ma-pherson square home to-day and talked freely about the report of Secretary Manning. "I have read it all," said he,
"and I approve it. Why shouldn't I? I am sound, strong and brave. He stands precisely where I did when I was in his place. I am glad that he met the tariff question fairly and squarely, and should be gratified if congress would heed his recommendation for a reduction of tariff rates. This country should no longer plead the 'baby act' as a reason for taxing the people to enhance the profits of protected interests. It is well to remind the agriculturists of the country of the interest they should manifest on the subject. But the agriculturists are without organization, while the manufacturers are banded together ready to oppose reduction and not unwilling to spend money to accomplish their purpose. It is my opinion, repeatedly expressed, that American manufacturers can compete with the world without further support from the government. As a Henry Clay I believe in the American principle that the tariff should be adjusted to American industries. We had few manufacturers then, and those manufacturers did not receive the degree of support since given to similar industries by the tariff. My impression is that the way to secure a reduction or revision of the tariff is by a commission—not a commission composed, as the last was, of representatives of leading interests, who may be inclined to adjust the duties with a view to maintaining a favorite theory, but men of character,
force, independence, and intelligence,
who will undertake the work in a broad spirit and with the determination to meet the question fairly. It is doubtful whether, even if a perfect commission could be secured, and its work accepted by the house, it would be acceptable to the senate. As for the proposition to retire the greenbacks by redeeming them with silver certificates, that is practically the suggestion made by me when I was Mr. Johnson's secretary. It was approved and would have succeeded if it had not been insisted upon that the treasury should make statements. The statements showed that the greenbacks were being retired and the fear that the currency would be contracted led to the abandonment of the attempt to get rid of the legal tenders. I do not believe that the recom-
